

SILVER'S POSITION DEFINED BY CARTER

REPRESENTATIVE OF WHITE METAL MAKES A SPEECH.

He Denies the Charges of Disloyalty to
The Republican Party—Messrs.
Sherman and Teller Join the Controversy—Most Exciting Debate of the Senate—Capital Gossip.

Washington, Feb. 27.—There was another sensational scene in the senate Wednesday. Senator Carter, of Montana, made the speech of the day. The burden of his argument was that the republican party had declared for bimetalism in the Minneapolis convention, and that the party has not lived up to the platform.

As soon as the senate met, Mr. Allen, of Nebraska, returned to the tariff question by referring to the statements of Mr. Morrill, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Platt during the exciting debate Friday. Mr. Allen said he had believed that it was the honest purpose of the republican party to enact a law placing gold and silver on equal terms, but that debate developed that the republican leaders under no circumstances would accept a free coinage measure. Under these circumstances he would submit a distinct proposition to the chairman of the finance committee, that he (Allen) would assure sufficient populist votes to give a majority of the senate, if the passage of the tariff bill was accompanied by the adoption of a free coinage amendment. "The populist senators are ready to swallow your nauseating and unjust tariff measure," said Mr. Allen, "if you will place silver on equal terms with gold, but you will not do it." In concluding his speech Mr. Allen held up a bill, exclaiming: "Now, to test your integrity and your good faith, I offer this bill. It is your tariff bill, without a 'T' uncrossed or an 'I' undotted except in the title. I say to you that if you are ready to show the good faith of your assertions for silver and link it with the tariff bill, we will pledge you six populist votes."

Mr. Allen's bill was then read, it being the tariff bill and a free silver bill combined. It went to the table temporarily.

Mr. Lindsay, of Kentucky, offered an amendment to the tariff resolution of Mr. Carter, directing the finance committee to report back a repeal of the one-eighth differential duty on sugar.

Mr. Carter then took the floor for the speech, which had been anticipated with keen interest, deeming his attitude on the tariff bill. He began by referring to the action of Feb. 13, when the motion to take up the tariff bill was defeated. He said two hours before the motion was made he, acting upon the suggestion of a member of the finance committee, was endeavoring to bring about an understanding which might result in a satisfactory adjustment of the differences on the republican side of the chamber. The motion of Senator Morrill was unexpected, and he, with other republicans, voted "no," and under the same circumstances he would cast a similar vote. The position indicated nothing more than that there was no disposition to take up the matter at that time.

Referring to the tariff bill the senator said it was admitted everywhere that the bill was not a republican measure, but it was a measure to meet an alleged emergency which the chief executive stoutly asserted did not exist at all. He declared that the silver republicans believed they were right and were firm in their party allegiance.

Senator Carter said that business depressions in this country followed the election of 1892 because tariff reform meant free trade, and continued: "At this momentous point a spark of genius appeared in one of the most determined men this country has ever known. When the history of our times shall be written Mr. Cleveland will be accorded the honor of having displayed the most marvelous political tact of any man of his time."

The senator then referred to the financial and tariff legislation favored by the administration, paid his respects to the republican senators and representatives who operated with the democratic administration to bring about the repeal of the Sherman silver law, and in speaking of the suggestion of the President that the greenbacks should be retired said: "A horde of presidential aspirants rushed to political suicide yelling 'Sound money'." The press of New York City leads the procession—"sound money" is their cry. And under the cover of this cry the President protected himself and his administration from unjust criticism for the most shady and iniquitous transaction in public finances the world has ever known." (Referring to the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act.)

Then continuing, the senator said in part: "The tariff bill reaches the senate. A substitute is reported for it. Certain patriotic republicans, forgetting the platform of 1892 on the tariff question, forgetting all the traditions of their party, seek to have republicans in this chamber who are devoted to bimetalism and protection, two elementary principles of republican faith, put in such a position as apparently to be compelled to vote against one of their principles in order to secure the success of the other. Some gentlemen who pretended to understand the situation refused to co-operate. To the candid judgment of honest men I leave the determination of the questions relating to the fidelity of the republicans in this senate to their party principles.

"It is high time republicans who claim to be within the party should take their cues from the party platform rather than from the White House. If the platform of 1895 announces to the country, in conjunction with the action of reports bearing on the two conventions that the plank of bimetalism adopted at Minneapolis was a delusion, a fraud and a snare, it would be just as well for the republican party not to make a nomination at St. Louis at all."

Mr. Carter closed at 2:15 o'clock and was greeted with hearty applause from the crowded galleries and congratulations from a number of his colleagues. Mr. Hoar immediately arose to question him. He took up the charge of Mr. Carter that eastern republicans had been false to the platform of 1892. Did the Montana senator mean, he asked, that the construction placed on that platform by President Harrison was false and elusive? Mr. Hoar closed with this question: "I ask the senator whether we are to understand him to say that if he fails to convince his republican associates he then proposes to say to us: 'You shall not pass any protective tariff bill unless you surrender your convictions to us.' If a protective bill is hereafter presented, fair and just, on wool, lead, ore, fruit and the various industries of the west, does the senator mean to say that he will not let that bill pass unless we surrender our convictions to him?"

Mr. Carter stated that the interpretation placed upon the Minneapolis platform by the republicans of the east would lead them to wipe out the last vestige of legislation favorable to silver. With such a construction of the Minneapolis platform the silver republicans were at war now, and would continue to be at war. Continuing, Mr. Carter made a brief reply to Mr. Hoar's question whether, if defeated in their efforts at receiving such legislation as they demand at the hands of the republican party, the silver republicans would sever their connection with the party. He said that the republicans of the west who construe the platform of 1892 as favorable to silver would be the last to desert the ship, and that if others who take a different view of the question should find it incumbent upon them to leave the vessel the western men would gaze with sorrow upon the sad spectacle.

Mr. Hoar contended that the republicans of the east believed in a double standard of value in accordance with the constitution and the doctrine as promulgated by Alexander Hamilton.

Mr. Teller declared that the pronouncement for bimetalism in the republican platform of 1892 was a declaration for silver coinage, and he asserted that Mr. Sherman was the only high financial authority who contended that bimetalism could be secured by any other means than by the coinage of both metals on equal terms, and he asserted that anyone who held a contrary view was either ignorant or wanted to deceive.

Mr. Sherman followed Mr. Teller. He said he believed in the use of both metals to as great an extent as was possible and at the same time maintain their parity. He then discussed the meaning of bimetalism as understood by him. In this country to-day the laboring man received a dollar equal to gold worth 100 cents, but with a free silver dollar, he said, the laboring man would be cheated of one-half of his dollar. The people were beginning to understand this. They were beginning to learn that free silver coinage meant cheating the creditors out of one-half of their dues. The maintaining of both metals as money should be on such a basis that each would be equal to the other. That would be true bimetalism. The adoption of free silver meant silver monometallism with a half depreciated silver coin.

Mr. Sherman said every state east of the Missouri river was now in favor of bimetalism. This had come about slowly, for the free silver idea at one time held strong influence in the west and in his own state. He believed even Colorado would soon refuse to urge a depreciated dollar and would follow the course of other states for true bimetalism. Mexico had begun to show the revulsion of feeling against a depreciated money.

Mr. Teller answered that the definitions of bimetalism by Mr. Sherman were erroneous, were contrary to those accepted at state and national conventions, contrary to the accepted understanding of France and other foreign countries. The republican party could not be stultified, said he, by the deception and fraud and the "bunco" game of the single gold advocates. With impassioned tones and addressing himself to Mr. Sherman, he repudiated the suggestion that Colorado would ever accept the "dishonest interpretation of bimetalism here presented," and if it did, he added, he would cease to represent that state in the United States senate. He concluded: "The safety of the republican party lies in an adherence to honest, sound money, made up of the two metals side by side, as from time immemorial. If the republican party puts itself under the leadership of the senator from Ohio it will be a party of the past, and the glory of its past will be obliterated by that infamy."

Here the debate was cut off by the arrival of the hour for again taking up the Cuban question.

SWIFT PUNISHMENT FOR THE ROBBERS

TEXAS CITIZENS LYNCH BANK
ROBBERS.

Desperadoes Who Attempted to Loot
The Wichita Falls Bank Meet
Death at the Hands of a Mob
—Bandits at Warren, Kansas,
Still at Large.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Feb. 27.—Foster Crawford and Younger Lewis, alias "The Kid," who attempted to rob the City National bank, killing Cashier Dorsey and wounding Bookkeeper P. P. Langford, were lynched here Wednesday night in front of the scene of their crime. The two men were arrested near Fort Worth after a desperate battle with the rangers. They were brought here and placed in jail. With the announcement of their arrival in the city a mob of several hundred persons was quickly gathered and, with cool leaders, went to the jail and demanded the robbers and murderers.

Captain McDonald refused to give them up and threatened to repulse the mob with force if force was used to break into the jail. The mob then withdrew. A few hours later Captain McDonald received a telegram, calling him and his men at once to Amarillo. It is now believed this message was a ruse to get him out of the way.

At 8:30 o'clock the mob, reinforced by thousands of curiously inclined, attacked the jail. There was no trouble in securing admittance and a demand for Crawford and "The Kid" produced them immediately. The first impulse of the half-crazed mob was to burn its victims at the stake, and a rush was made with the two wretches for the public square. Wiser counsel checked the rush of the mob and a few hurried words cautioned the leaders not to repeat the awful disgrace of Paris, Texas, when a negro was burned at the stake in the public square.

The mob, with its victims, then turned about and went to the bank, where the crime was committed. Here, under a telegraph pole, a rude scaffold was improvised. Both men were forced upon it, while a nimble young fellow climbed the pole and dropped two nooses over the lower cross-arm. Then yells arose of "Hang 'the Kid' first," while others shouted: "No, hang Crawford first." It was finally decided to give "The Kid" a short shrift, hoping he would be frightened into confessing former crimes. The young fellow, in answer to cries from the mob, said that his right name was Younger Lewis, and that his mother and father lived in Neosho, Mo. The rope was placed about his neck, while he alternately cursed and jeered the crowd in front of him. He continued chatting and laughing with the crowd, poking fun at them and cursing for a moment, and then some one yelled: "Time is up."

"The Kid" said: "I am 20 years old and robbed the bank. I am dead game and ready to die. Go ahead."

In an instant he was pulled up above the throng. He never quivered or kicked. Men on the frontier for years and years say no gamer man ever died. He was the coolest man in all the great throng.

All the while Crawford was a spectator of the scene. He began to weaken and confessed, giving some valuable information. He placed the responsibility for the crime on "The Kid."

The mob pulled him off the improvised platform next to the bank he attempted to rob, and his head was about on a level with the dangling feet of his companion. Crawford confessed to the robbery, but denied the murder. He was soon strung up along with his companion, and their bodies are still dangling in midair.

Warren Bandits Not Yet Captured.

Little Rock, Ark., Feb. 27.—The robbers who attacked the Merchants and Planters' bank at Warren, Ark., Tuesday have not been captured. They have been traced by a posse to a point near Ferdye, and the chances of capture are fairly good. There is no clew to their identity. Two of them apparently are Mexicans and the third an American. Rewards aggregating $1,200 have been offered for their capture. Both of the wounded men are still alive, but there are small hopes of Mr. Goodwin's recovery.

Fresh Massacres in Armenia.
London, Feb. 27.—The Chronicle has a dispatch from Constantinople which says that a fresh series of massacres is reported in the Sivas and Kharput districts.

The Daily News has a dispatch from Constantinople which says that it is reported there that on Feb. 14, the first day of the Ramadan festival, the Turks surrounded the Armenian quarter in Marsovan and ordered the Armenians to accept Islam. Five hundred of them agreed to do so, but 150 recalcitrants were killed. All news of excesses in Asia Minor are kept dark, the Daily News' correspondent says, for fear they will impel Russia to occupy Armenia.

Desperado Murders Two Men.

Jackson, Tenn., Feb. 27.—James Bagwell, a desperate character, shot and killed John Butler and Henry Bibb, two respected citizens, at a dance near Henderson, Chester county, Tuesday night. In the excitement women fainted, men lost their heads and the murderer escaped.

GOSCHEN DOES NOT FAVOR AR-BITRATION.

The British Minister Who Places War
Above That Form of Settling International Disputes—Wants a Powerful Fleet—Rumors as to Egypt
Denied By Those In Authority.

London, Feb. 27.—Mr. G. J. Goschen, first lord of the admiralty, speaking at Leweston, said that conciliation, negotiation and arbitration might be valuable, but woe to the nation lacking the courage or means to back their opinion by their own resources. The new system of log-rolling and bartering for alliances, he said, had displaced the old system of a balance of power between European nations. England was not clever at this game, he added, and had held aloof, although her alliance was courted by several groups of powers.

"Our isolation, therefore," Mr. Goschen continued, "is not one of weakness, but of freedom to act independently. This has caused misunderstandings. But it might be hoped that recent complications have shown our neighbors that the national spirit is not dead, and that on certain occasions we might be combustible. Without betraying secrets I might say that a very distinguished German, not Prince Bismarck, has been convinced for years that England could not be moved to war by anything short of an attack on her central interests in this country. That was a dangerous fallacy which has not probably been dislodged."

He was able to say, Mr. Goschen added, that our relations with the German emperor were now as cordial as they could possibly be. He concluded with a reference to the necessity for a powerful fleet.

RUMORS AS TO EGYPT DENIED.

British and Turkish Diplomats Declare Reports Are Unfounded.

London, Feb. 27.—Inquiries were made at the foreign office and at the Turkish embassy regarding the dispatch from Constantinople, published by the Times, saying that the marquis of Salisbury has sent a reply to the invitation forwarded to Great Britain by the sultan through the Turkish ambassador here, to regulate the situation in Egypt with suzerain power for Great Britain on the basis of guarantees being furnished for the security of communications between England and India. The Turkish ambassador has already denied submitting any such proposals to the British minister for foreign affairs and at the Ottoman embassy the officials present disclaimed having any knowledge of a reply having been sent to the sultan on this or any other subject recently. The British foreign office officials were equally emphatic in professing complete ignorance of the whole affair.

IOWA LEGISLATURE.

Strong Probability of the Passage of the State University Bill.

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 27.—The senate ways and means committee on Wednesday voted unanimously to recommend the passage of the bill for the one-tenth mill levy for building purposes for the state university. The house ways and means committee has recommended it, and it now seems certain of passage. It provides that it shall extend five years after the next levy, but a provision is inserted which makes it cover six years in reality. The total amount which will thus be given is $330,000. A resolution was introduced in the house to adjourn the session to April 19. A similar resolution in the senate fixed the time at April 2. Both went over under the rules and will come up for consideration today.

The senate passed the age of consent bill by a vote of 47 to 1. The age is fixed at 16. Between the ages of 14 and 16, graduated punishment is provided. Senator Cheshire secured the passage of an amendment raising the age of boys amenable from 16 to 18. The senate committee on the suppression of intemperance voted to return the Perrin bill to prohibit the sale and manufacture of intoxicating liquors to the senate, without recommendation.

Action Taken Against Silver.

New York, Feb. 27.—The "sound money" committee of the chamber of commerce held a meeting Wednesday in the rooms of the chamber of commerce. There was a discussion of the financial problems and at its conclusion several resolutions were offered. One submitted by Gustav H. Schwab read: "Resolved, That it is the sense of this committee that the agitation in favor of the maintenance of the present standard of value and against the free coinage of silver should be prosecuted with vigor." The resolution was adopted unanimously.

House Foreign Committee.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Mr. Dinsmore of Arkansas filed the minority report of the committee on foreign affairs on the resolution to censure Ambassador Bayard Wednesday. The report is very brief. It says that the minority dissents from the views of the majority and that in its opinion there was nothing in either of the speeches mentioned that calls for or justifies any censure by congress.

A. P. A. ENDS A LONG SESSION.

State Officers Elected and Strong Resolutions Adopted.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 27.—The A. P. A. state convention concluded its session at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The meeting was for the purpose of the election of officers and consideration of financial matters. The latter was disposed of, but when the session adjourned only the president and vice-president had been elected. Early in the morning the delegates reassembled and the election was concluded by the choice of the following officers: State president, C. P. Johnson, Springfield; vice-president, W. C. Holden, Galesburg; state secretary of state, C. S. Carey, Cairo; state chaplain, J. S. Woods, Peoria; state secretary, Will D. Newton, Bloomington; state treasurer, H. W. Hitt, Jacksonville; state sergeant-at-arms, S. B. Corey, Elmhurst; state inside guard, N. Y. Lloyd, Chicago; state sentinel, J. C. Farrell, Metropolis.

Resolutions were passed forever denouncing the appropriation of public money for sectarian purposes by the congress of the United States, and voicing the unanimous sentiment of the convention toward the separation of church and state. East St. Louis was selected as the next place of meeting. The resolutions adopted indorse the Illinois flag law; pledge hearty sympathy for Cuban patriots; indorse the action of Premier Greenway, of Manitoba, and protest against the placing of the Marquette statue in the hall at Washington.

INDIANA PROHIBITIONISTS.

State Convention Now in Session in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 27.—The prohibitionists began the work of their state convention Wednesday. It is a mass convention, open to women, and has drawn an audience of about 500 people from over the state. There is little or no talk about candidates, but it is probable that Judge Land of Princeton or Judge Farr of Shelbyville will head the ticket as the candidate for governor. The only show of a contest has been on the platform on the question of whether it shall be confined to prohibition or go in for woman suffrage, free silver, and various other planks. John P. St. John of Kansas is for free silver and declares that the silver sentiment will sweep the country this year. The "broad gauge" faction won in the committee on resolutions.

Baltimore Tailors Strike.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 27.—The garment-workers of this city who are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor decided at midnight Wednesday to order a general strike of all the members in this city, to go into effect at once. Five or six thousand operatives and twenty-five firms of manufacturers are affected. The strike was indirectly the result of one which has been on for a week, in which the employees of but one firm took part. The operatives who are members of the Knights of Labor will not join in the strike.

Butter and Cheese Makers.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Feb. 27.—The attendance at the National Butter and Cheese Makers' association was increased by at least 100 arrivals, Wednesday, among whom were twenty-six members of the Chicago butter board, who came in a special car. The creamery in operation, under the direction of C. T. Myers of Iowa, Wis., used 7,000 pounds of milk, the work being done in the presence of a large class of buttermakers. At the afternoon session many papers were read.

Nebraska Democrats Divided.

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 27.—The free silver democratic state central committee met here to fix the date for selecting delegates to the Chicago convention. April 22 was the time named for the convention to be held at Lincoln. This means that two democratic delegations will go from Nebraska to the national convention, each claiming by all ordinary rules to be the regular delegation entitled to recognition. The other wing of the party has not yet met.

Rock Island Trains Running.

Burlington, Iowa, Feb. 27.—Nine trains on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway went through here Wednesday over the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy tracks, crossing on their bridge over the Mississippi at this point. The wrecked bridge at Davenport is the cause. The first train through was a westbound mail train. Freight is also being sent around this way.

Blue and Gray Will Not Parade.

New York, Feb. 27.—The proposed "blue and gray" parade which was to take place in this city on July 4 next, in which the union and confederate veterans were to take part and which has been so widely discussed by the press and otherwise in all parts of the country, will not be held. There has been a difference of opinion regarding the advisability of such a parade since it was first proposed.

Big Job of Body-Snatching.

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 27.—The police have information that Claycomb, the man brought from Des Moines for body-snatching, made a contract with the medical college at Des Moines to furnish it seventy-five dead bodies at $50 each. It is unknown how much of this contract has been filled.

Iowa Silver Men Meet.

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 27.—A conference of leading silver men of the state, nearly all of them democrats, was held here Wednesday. It was secret, but enough has been made public to create something of a sensation. S. H. Bashow of Waterloo, one of the silver leaders, a neighbor of Boies and one with whom the latter has frequently conferred recently, said that in view of the letter by Boies he believed there was a strong prospect that the Iowa free silverites would, in case it became evident that both the republican and democratic national parties were going to declare against silver, join a national movement for a silver ticket this year and name Boies as their choice for the head of such a ticket.

Break in Salvationist Ranks.

New York, Feb. 27.—Manifestations of the much-talked of revolution in the salvation army took a more definite form last night. Maj. Peter Glen, the oldest officer in point of service in the headquarters staff, who for several years has had charge of the field department, sent in his resignation to Eva Booth. At salvation army headquarters Col. Nicol said that a majority of the brigadier-generals of the army had been heard from by telegraph or otherwise, and that all professed unswerving allegiance to the international organization.

Little Business in the House.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The Van Horn-Tarsney contested election case from the Kansas City (Mo. district occupied the attention of the house Wednesday. The vote on the case will be taken today. Although there is considerable defection on the republican side which favors the minority recommendation that the case shall be re-committed, and the testimony reopened, the indications are that the majority report will be adopted. No business of importance was transacted.

Look for Fun on Friday.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 27.—The exciting scene in the house Wednesday attending the bringing up of the contested election cases of Werner-Tompkins made the taking of the thirty-first ballot for senator in the general assembly, very interesting. The decision of the house to take up for consideration the Werner-Tompkins case on Friday means that lively times may be expected on that day.

Coal Men to Form a Big Pool.

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 27.—Vesselsmen in Cleveland have received word that the coal companies in the receiving ports of Lake Michigan, principally Chicago and Milwaukee, were about to form a pool similar to that at Duluth. The penalty is death. The jury declared the wife innocent. The verdict is a great surprise.

Blaze at Fort Huron, Mich.

Port Huron, Mich., Feb. 27.—The Bryce Block, occupied by Meisel Bros., dry goods, and M. M. Young, shoes, burned Wednesday. Loss, $100,000; insurance, about $60,000. The fire originated in Young's store in the basement. Adjoining buildings were slightly damaged.

DID MONEY CAUSE THE GORY CRIME?

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE PATTERSON TRAGEDY.

Dispatches Say That the Husband Wanted to Control His Wife's Fortune—Murdered Woman Has Relatives at Evansville Where the Double Funeral Was Held Today.

A sad double funeral was held at Evansville today when Mrs. A. W. Patterson, the murdered woman, and the insane husband who killed her and himself, at Madison, were laid to rest.

The dead woman had relatives in Evansville, Messrs. Hopkins and Lewis being her brothers-in-law, and Mrs. James Swager her sister.

Mrs. Patterson died yesterday, and dispatches from Madison say that it is now quite generally believed that the trouble between her husband and herself was all over the former's inability to get control of the $6,000 to $10,000 owned by the wife and his anxiety to prevent any of his own property from being diverted after his death to his wife's relatives.

Just before shooting himself, it is said, he called his daughter, a favorite child, in to see that her stepmother was dead. Then, after putting his hand on his wife's heart to make sure that she was really dead, he put a bullet in his own brain. The girl was thus a witness that the mother was shot first. But the father's alleged plans miscarried because the wife lingered many hours after he died, thus becoming his widow and therefore entitled to a dower in his estate.

Mrs. Swager was interviewed at Madison and said:

"I know of no will left by my sister. If there is one, I believe I should have known of it. She discussed with me time and again the advisability of making a will, and I know it was her intention to leave a great portion of her property to her sisters. The intimation in the letter that she had bequeathed her property to her two youngest stepchildren, is untrue, I believe."

Mrs. Swager was visiting her sister at Madison from last Friday until the evening of the tragedy, when she went home, only to be recalled by telegram. The letter states that Patterson's will and papers are in the bank of Wisconsin. He carried $6,000 life insurance—$2,000 in the Masonic company, $2,000 in the Galeville company and $2,000 in the National Premium company of Madison. The last policy was taken out within the last few months. It was first made payable to his wife, but was later changed in favor of his children.

It is generally believed that Mrs. Patterson was not a willing victim. Dr. L. R. Head believes she was murdered by her husband. The doctors yesterday found that she had been shot three times—once in the right arm and twice in the head. The second bullet in the head entered the brain in an upward course. Two bullets were found by the doctors in the brain. All day the brain oozed from the wound, and still the victim lived.

Direct won the stallion record when Kelly drove him the mile in 2:05 1/4, but was not raced last season and John R. Gentry lowered the mark. Mr. Kelly bought DIRECT, 2:05 1/4.

Direct at the New York fair. He is day paying $8,250 for himself or Mr. Kelly to have acted on by the city, Butler, the millionaire in Kelly's whose horses have been in work charge since he located in New York city.

Direct is not the only horse Mr. Kelly has bought, for before Direct was brought out he purchased Lavaune, m. m. by Jay Bird, $900; Hamlet ch. c. by Pamlico, $600 and Pepper Sauce (2:27 1/4) b. n. by Onward, $1,610; of the Almansa Farm Consignment. Esmeralda, b. f. by Wilkes Bay, of the John A. Goldsmith consignment was also bought by Mr. Kelly for $900. All these horses except Direct were bought two weeks ago, and the New York Herald says in regard to the sales:

"John Kelly, who was presumably acting for James Butler, president of the Driving club of New York, was a heavy buyer, and when he started in on any horse the price seemed to be no object."

It is also said that when Directum, the champion trotting stallion who also owes his fame to the former Janesville man, is put up, Mr. Kelly may make the bidding lively if the great son of Director is found to be all right physically.

In addition to the new purchases Mr. Kelly will probably have Dudley Olcott, Aunt Delillah and others of his last season's string.

MANY LAUGH AT CHARLEY'S AUNT

Noted Comedy Is One That All Can Enjoy to the Utmost.

At the Myers Grand tonight laughter holding both sides, as old John Milton puts it, prevails Mr. Chae. Froham's latest comedy success, "Charley's Aunt" which has been given first place as one of the funniest of funny comedies of the day. All the theatre-going people of America laughed at it. "Charley's Aunt" chases dull care away without effort. Fretting people laugh at her in spite of themselves and leave the theatre after the final curtain, much the better for an evening unalloyed fun. We are to have the same company that presented the piece in Boston for one hundred nights.

REUNION AND FEAST HELD LAST NIGHT

RER. V. E. SOUTHWORTH'S INNOVATION AT ALL SOULS.

Reports of the Work in the Various Church Departments Were Made And The Pastor Read His First Annual Message to the Congregation.

The annual reunion and banquet of All Souls church was held at the church parlors last evening and was largely attended. The banquet was served at 6:30 o'clock. The reports from the different branches of the church were in excellent condition; C. V. Kerch outlined the work of the school for religious culture; Mrs. Ida Hall told of the Ladies' society; Mrs. C. V. Kerch described the work of the Try society; Mrs. Walter Helms reported for the choir committee; Mr. Southworth spoke of the conversation class; Miss Millicent Chittenden informed the meeting of the progress made by the Emerson class; Miss Ella Wixom told of the value of the kindergarten and Rev. Mr. Southworth read the report of the Culture club.

These reports showed that the church would probably be out of debt by April 1; that the school for religious culture was cramped for room; the ladies' society is in debt for $538.50 for heating and decorating the church; and the kindergarten is in good condition financially.

I. O. Brownell and W. H. Greenman were re-elected trustees, and Rev. Mr. Southworth then read his annual message in the course of which he said:

FRIENDS AND FELLOW WORKERS:—As the one whom you have freely chosen to act as leader and teacher in our work as a free church, I hereby present to you my first annual message. Year by year while I am at the head of this movement, I shall bring to you a similar word. I esteem it my official duty and privilege to keep you reminded of our position as a church and what it involves.

It is virtually important that each of you should understand and be able to make others understand with precision and plainness what our position really is. A movement of this kind suffers most from misunderstanding and the consequent misrepresentations. We are a church. As such we stand for something, that something it capable of definite and intelligible statement. If you want to be helpful friends of our church, you must make yourselves so familiar with its underlying principles that you can always give to others a clear and kindly statement of our position. Thirty years ago the founders of this church officially and legally decreed that "any person may become a member of this church who really desires to get good from it and to do good in it."

The above is the only official statement of our position which has ever been made. It is so far as I know an entirely satisfactory statement. It has never been revised and so far as I can learn there is at present no desire for any change.

Well, then, if this is our position, let us understand it clearly and be loyal to it.

We are a church—a free, open, human church, a strictly voluntary association devoted to the promotion of goodness.

Our religion, our work and our worship is absolutely divorced from any special theological or ecclesiastical limitations. While we regard with equal interest all systems of religion and all strictly ecclesiastical establishments, we are not pledged to any special one.

We are Christian to the Christians, Jew to the Jews, Unitarian to the Unitarians, and Rationalist to the Rationalists, only in the sense that as human beings we desire to be humane to all that is human.

This is the glory of our position. Nothing that is good and true and helpful to man as a man is excluded from our life as a church. Whatever can in any way assist us in our effort "to get good and to do good" we are free to make use of.

Continuing, Mr. Southworth explained what the position of the church involved and its responsibilities and in closing he said:

"Let me warn you—if the past of the church has been good and glorious, it is only in order that better work and braver words may enrich the future. For us there is no rest but that which comes from earnest and high-minded devotion.

We are a fellowship to do. Unless our work justifies our word, our word had best be unspoken.

I may speak the words but they will fall dead, if we do not together do the work. I beg you redouble in every way your activities. In this and this only can we hope to live and grow and be a blessing to Janesville. All of which I humbly submit to your careful consideration. Always heartily, your pastor, V. E. Southworth."

A protest against the bill now before congress introducing the name of God into the constitution was circulated and signed on the grounds that it was unfair and would make this nation orthodox and evangelical.

After calling the meeting to order Rev. Mr. Southworth paid a tribute to the memory of Mrs. S. C. Gentry and read a beautiful letter from Mrs. Minerva Guernsey King and Mrs. May Guernsey King, in which they expressed their mother's love and kindly wishes to the friends of All Souls church.

The Old Way

The old way of selling a customer a suit was to fit him as near as possible from the stock on hand and "let it go at that," anyway to make a sale. The new way is to give a perfect fit or none. It is perhaps a little hard for some, but is made easy by trying one of Adler Bros. suits on a customer. F. H. Baack.

SHOW PRIZES IN THE WINDOW.

Merchants Are Requested to Display Mid-winter Fair Premiums.

Nobody can say that the Janesville mid-winter fair has been arranged without due regard to the practical. There are no premiums for fancy work to any amount, but when it comes to bread, baked beans, and butter, the rewards are liberal. One of the most fitting prizes is a three-dollar box toilet soap which goes to the woman who exhibits the best laundered shirt. There should be a display of glossy bosoms and immaculate cuffs at the Janesville show that will make the hearts of Hop Sing and Wun Lung sink within them.

A special premium of one dollar worth of seeds is offered by Walter Helms for the best display of seeds.

Samuel Rosenfeld's name was printed on William by mistake in the premium list.

C. W. Price, proprietor of the Franklin Hotel, has donated six meal tickets as a prize for the guessing contest.

The New Gas Light company have donated the use of the gas stoves for the cooking school to be held in connection with the fair in the McKee block.

Mrs. Helen Noggle Puffer of Monroe, gave a special premium of one cook book for the best pan of biscuits made by a girl under sixteen years of age.

GRATIFYING RESULTS.

Interesting Experiments with the New Stomach Remedy.

Not a Patent Medicine, But a Safe Cure for All Forms of Indigestion.

The results of recent investigation, have established, beyond question, the great value of the new preparation for indigestion and stomach troubles; it is composed of the digestive acids, pepsin, bismuth, Golden Seal and similar stomachics, prepared in the form of 20 grain lozenges, pleasant to the taste, convenient to carry when traveling, harmless to the most delicate stomach, and probably the safest, most effective cure yet discovered for indigestion, sour stomach, loss of appetite and flesh, nausea, sick headaches, palpitation of heart, and the many symptoms arising from imperfect digestion of food. They cure because they cause the food to be promptly and thoroughly digested before it has time to sour, ferment and poison the blood and nervous system.

Judge Frank Ives, of District Court of Crookston, Minn., says: For some time I have used Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, with seeming great benefit, with few exceptions, I have not been so free from indigestion in twenty-five years.

Geo. W. Roosevelt, U. S. Consul to Brussels, Belgium: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, safe, pleasant to take, convenient to carry, give keen appetite, perfect digestion.

Mr. W. D. Tomlin, Mechanical Engineer, Duluth, Minn.: One box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets has done its work, and I am again gaining flesh and strength.

O. E. Ransom, Hustonville, Ky.: I was distressed and annoyed for two years with throwing up food, often two or three times a day; had no certainty of retaining a meal if I ate one. Four boxes of the tablets from my druggist, have fully cured me. I find them pleasant to take, convenient to carry.

Rev. G. D. Brown, Mondovi, Wis.: The effect of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is simply marvellous; a quite hearty dinner of broiled beef steak causes no distress since I began their use.

Over six thousand people in the state of Mich. alone in 1894 were cured of stomach troubles by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Full sized packages may be found at all druggists at 50c., or sent by mail on receipt of price from Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Have Respect FOR YOUR Stomach.

Do not give it food that will irritate it, or retard it in the performance of its natural functions, or it will retaliate in a way decidedly unpleasant.

Have you a headache, a distress in your stomach, a pain in the side, or an irritation of the skin? These are the symptoms of disordered digestion resulting from unwholesome food.

Alum baking powders are responsible for a large part of this unwholesome food, for it is a fact, recognized by all physicians, that alum renders food with which it is mixed partially indigestible.

The danger to the public is not trifling, for alum baking powders are numerous. How are they to be avoided?

Baking powders sold, either wholesale or retail, at a lower price than "Royal," are almost invariably made from alum, and therefore of inferior quality and dangerous to health.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER is made of cream of tartar, a pure, wholesome fruit acid derived from grapes. It adds positively anti-dyspeptic qualities to the food. It makes finer, lighter, sweeter food, and is more economical in use, because of its greater strength.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 105 WALL ST., NEW-YORK.

HERE CAN BE NO SECESSION.

x-President Harrison Declares that It Would Be an Impossibility.

"Our government is not a confederation of states, but as strictly a government of the people as is any state government," writes Ex-President Harrison discussing "This Country of Ours" in Ladies' Home Journal. "It is true that the vote upon the adoption originally and the vote upon amendments is by states, in state conventions or in state legislatures; and that in various other ways the states are recognized and used in the administration of the national government. It could hardly have been otherwise. But the construction of Mr. Calhoun and of the secessionists that our Constitution is a mere compact between independent states; that any state may withdraw from the Union for any breach of conditions of the compact, and that each state is to judge for itself whether the compact has been broken, has no support either in the history of the adoption of the Constitution or in the text of the instrument itself. The Constitution and laws of the United States take hold of and deal with each individual, not as a citizen of this or that state, but as a citizen of the United States. Each of us owes allegiance to the United States—to obey and support its Constitution and laws: and no act nor ordinance of any state can absolve us or make it lawful for us to disobey the laws or resist the authorities of the United States. We owe another allegiance, each to his own state, to support and obey its Constitution and laws, provided those do not conflict with the Constitution and laws of the United States. * * * The question whether an act of Congress is unconstitutional, or whether an act of any officer of the United States, done officially, is unauthorized, must, of course, be decided by the courts of the United States—in the last resort by the Supreme Court. A power in a state court to finally declare a law of the United States invalid would be destructive of national authority, and, indeed, of the national existence. There can be, in a proper Constitutional sense, no secession and no war between a state and the United States; for no ordinance repudiating the national authority or organizing resistance to it can have any legal sanction, even when passed by a state legislature."

HARD ON ROCK.
Rock county will not be satisfied with an apportionment that divides it between Green, Lafayette and Jefferson counties. The county stood for nothing in the senate last winter—was voiceless in the upper house of the legislature. The division now made gives Rock one district which it can control almost absolutely. Such control would mean friction however and would be contrary to fairness and good politics. There is every prospect, therefore, that the county will go unrepresented every now and again if the plan of splitting counties is perpetuated. If many more counties are dismembered somebody will propose organizing the state senate on the lines of the national senate and giving the counties equal representation, making differences of population count in the lower house only.

HE CAN'T UNITE THEM.
Mr. Cleveland's Utopian idea of consolidating the democratic party into a victorious army by declaring for sound money will never work. There are certain obstacles in the case which can not be removed by simply wishing they were out of the way. Mr. Cleveland himself has helped to create them, and he ought to know that they represent a condition and not a theory. His devotion to sound money has made him many enemies for whom he ought to be loved, which is to say that he has generated a kind of antagonism in his party that forbids the idea of such a surrender as his plan of success contemplates. He has acted courageously, but in so doing he has consolidated and intensified the free silver sentiment that he expected to suppress. It is a potent and an implacable force, and the suggestion that it ought to be discredited and humiliated itself by a betrayal of the cause for which it stands will only serve to render it more aggressive and vindictive, instead of tending to make it amiable.

Mr. Cleveland knows, of course, that over two-thirds of the democrats in the present congress have voted for free silver notwithstanding all that he has said and done in the opposite direction. These men do not speak for themselves merely, but for large constituencies that are very much in earnest about the matter. He has surely not failed to observe that in every democratic state his party is divided upon this question in an uncompromising and acrimonious way. The two factions are more bitter towards each other than the republican party. It is all very well to say that they ought to get together, but by what miraculous process is such a result to be effected? The contest grows fiercer every day, and to talk of harmony on the basis of a surrender on either side is foolish. That is what Mr. Cleveland has done for the democratic party by thrusting the currency issue upon it, and trying to bulldoze it into an acceptance of his views. The free silverites have burned their bridges behind them and it is useless to think of reconciling them to a sound money platform or candidate. They are well organized and firmly resolved to fight the thing out. There is not the remotest probability that they will consent, after all the abuse they have endured, to fling away their convictions and make an abject capitulation. Mr. Cleveland may cry peace at the top of his voice, but it will not come. The time has gone by for that sort of thing, and he might as well keep still about it.

WHY HASN'T THE EAGLE SCREAMED?
A good many people were surprised to learn through a congressional debate that the Fourth of July has never been a national holiday. Strictly speaking, there is only one national holiday, Thanksgiving day, and that is made so by annual proclamation of the president. Federal offices are usually closed on Christmas, New Year's, Memorial Day, the Fourth of July and Washington's Birthday, but the closing is simply a custom, and is not directed by law or officially recognized by the United States government. If the bill now before the house becomes a law, however, the anniversary of the nation's natal day will be duly recognized.

There were but two nations in the world that did more ship building than the United States last year. This country turned out a tonnage of $1,777, Germany 85,923 and Great Britain 950,966. Third in the list of nations wouldn't be bad for the United States under some circumstances, but that British total is something to make jingo orators moderate their fury.

The republican party is in favor of protection, as it has always been. That is one of its fundamental principles, and one of the main sources of its strength and usefulness. But it does not believe in duties that foster trusts or make opportunity for any kind of injustice.

An uncharitable exchange suggests that if Senator Carlisle wished to interfere in the matter of the Kentucky senatorship he would probably recommend that it be given to the Morgan syndicate.

The republican party needs a capable and trustworthy man at the head of its state central committee this year which means simply that no better man could be named than Chem. Ingersoll of Beloit.

They tell about Russell Sage making $100 a minute. What's the matter with Fitzsimmons who makes $10,000 in a minute and a half?

NEW CREAMERY SCHEME A "GO"
Officers Are Chosen and the Building Will Be Pushed

All arrangements have been made for the co-operative creamery to be built in the town of La Prairie. Final plans were discussed at a meeting held last night when officers were elected as follows:

President—James Scott.
Secretary—S. H. Joiner.
Treasurer—Joel Proctor.
A building committee was chosen consisting of J. E. Gleason, chairman, J. L. Bear and August Bohlman. This committee was instructed to expend the whole amount—$3,000—on the building alone, so it will be complete in all details. Work will be begun at once.

A board of directors was chosen also, the members being James Scott, J. E. Gleason, J. L. Bear, L. H. Joiner, Valentine Beers, William Reed and Joel Proctor. The milk from 347 cows will be used from the start, with a probability that the number will be largely increased in a short time.

of the physical constitution often comes from unnatural, pernicious habits, contracted through ignorance or from excess. Such habits result in loss of manly power, nervous exhaustion, nervous debility, impaired memory, low spirits, irritable temper, and a thousand and one derangements of mind and body. Epilepsy, paralysis, softening of the brain and even dread insanity sometimes result from such reckless self-abuse. To reach, reclaim and restore such unfortunate to health and happiness, is the aim of the publishers of a book written in plain but chaste language, on the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. THE BILL PASSED BY BOTH HOUSES

APPORTIONMENT MATTER IS NOW SETTLED.

Adjournment Taken Until Tomorrow Morning When Gov. Upham Will Report the Measure With His Approval—Senator Putnam Voted Against the Bill—Rock's Opposition

Madison, Wis., Feb. 27—Both houses of the legislature have at last passed an apportionment bill, redistricting the state of Wisconsin. The measure is the one last arranged by the legislative conference committee with slight amendment to the Ninth and Thirty-First districts. The senate adopted the bill this morning by a vote of fifteen to nine, and it was immediately thereafter taken into the house, where it was concurred in. Adjournments of both houses were then taken until tomorrow morning, when Governor Upham will report the bill to them with his approval. One republican had the hardihood to oppose the bill this morning. He was Senator Putnam, and the vote in the senate was 15 to 9, the other 8 negatives being democrats. Three of the republican senators who signed the judiciary report declaring the bill unconstitutional, Senators Austin, Spensley and Officer declined to vote for the bill, while Senator Youmans who also signed the report, voted with the majority.

All of Rock county's assemblymen spoke yesterday, on the subject of senate districts. Mr. Kimball said both democratic and republican citizens of Rock county were opposed to Rock county being divided.

S. S. Jones, of Clinton, also protested against the division of Rock, but said that rather than be considered an obstructionist, he would vote for the bill.

E. F. Hansen of Beloit, said the Rock county representatives did not want to be considered as obstructionists, but that they wanted to enter a protest against the breaking of Rock county in the formation of senatorial districts.

"From the time of the adoption of the constitution," he said, "until 1890, we always had a representative in the upper branch of the state legislature."

Mr. Hansen said Rock county was actuated by no selfish purpose and that all it wanted was that it should be treated the same as other counties. He said that Rock county had a larger population than Dodge county, which is not broken and is made a senatorial district. Mr. Hansen said that all things considered, if the committee plan was the best that could be made he would vote for the bill, but that he desired to register a protest in behalf of his county.

CHARLEY'S AUNT HERE TONIGHT

"Charley's Aunt" with its thousand and one laughs, with its funny and startling situations, its bright and sparkling dialogue, will be the attraction at the Grand tonight.

In "Charley's Aunt," Mr. Charles Frohman has endeavored to pass all his former attempts in the line of comedy, and he has succeeded. "Charley's Aunt" has created a furore wherever presented on the road, playing to the utmost capacity of the houses. The plot of "Charley's Aunt" is not complicated, but the complications that arise from the compact between "Charley" and his chum masquerading as his aunt, makes one of the most laughable and interesting comedies existing.

SEQUEL TO THAT TELEGRAPHIC LIQUOR ORDER.

Well Known Resident of Evansville Was Charged With Forging the Name of Dr. Smith to The Dispatch—Did Not Show Up When the Case Was Called—Fenn Arraigned.

Matt. Broderick, the well known Evansville man, did not show up in court at that village yesterday, and District Attorney Jackson is anxious to know where he is.

Some days ago, a Janesville liquor man got an order for ten gallons of liquor by telegraph, the dispatch purporting to come from Dr. Smith. The latter denied sending the telegram, and it was charged that the dispatch was sent by Broderick. A complaint charging Broderick with obtaining goods under false pretenses was then made, but as that charge was not thought to be strong enough, the case was dismissed. Then Dr. Smith charged Broderick with forgery in using his name in the telegram. Broderick was arraigned in court, and the case adjourned he being released on his agreement to be present when wanted. The case came up at Evansville yesterday.

District Attorney Jackson was on hand to prosecute, but Broderick did not show up. Whether or not he has "skipped" is not known, but at any rate he is not now in evidence.

Miles Fenn was arraigned in the municipal court today charged with burglarizing Alex. McLellan's saloon, but the case was adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Sutherland & Nolan represented Fenn, while District Attorney Jackson appeared for the state.

THE MACHINE COMPANY RUSHED

Blacksmithing Department Will Run All Night Hereafter To Catch Up.

The Janesville Machine Company's big plant is now running night, owing to the rush of orders. The day force consists of one hundred and sixty men, but they cannot catch up with the orders.

"The night force to begin with, consists of twenty-five men, mostly in the blacksmith department," said an officer of the company, "but we intend to increase the number right along. During the past few days have averaged four cars a day."

A WATER PIPE JOINT BLEW OUT AT NIGHT

THE HIGH MAINS WERE QUICKLY DRAINED.

Accident Occurred at the Fourth Avenue Bridge Crossing But Was Remedied in a Few Minutes—Repairs Will Be Expensive as the Line Must Be Relaid.

There was a costly accident to the Janesville water system last night. One of the joints at the Fourth avenue river crossing blew out, and the water was drained from the entire system. The break was discovered at 4 o'clock this morning, and it took ten minutes to shut off that portion of the main, but before the alarm was given, the pipes in the higher portions of the city had been emptied. So early was the hour that no inconvenience was felt except at the Northwestern depot, where it was impossible to get water for washing engines. The Fourth avenue crossing is not a part of the original system but is an additional crossing put in to insure a free circulation of water from the standpipe. It also serves as a reserve. Steps will be taken at once to repair it. The job is likely to prove a very expensive one for the water company as the pipe on that part of the line must all be relaid.

The Correct Hats

Are

The Miller

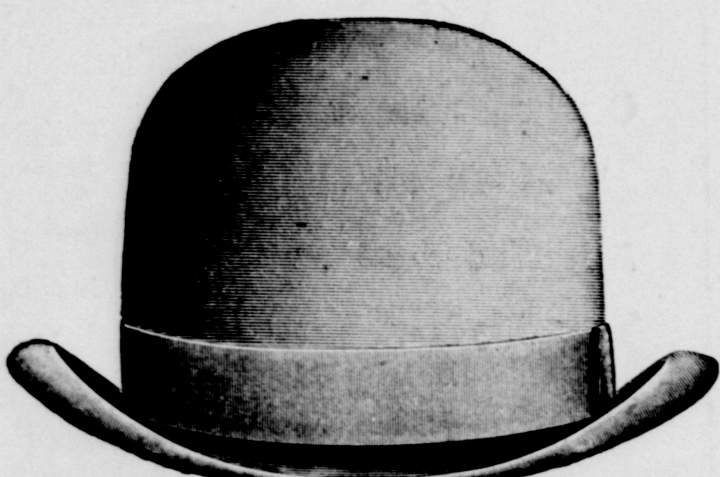

And the

John B. Stetson & Co's.

'96 SPRING BLOCKS.

Our Greeting:

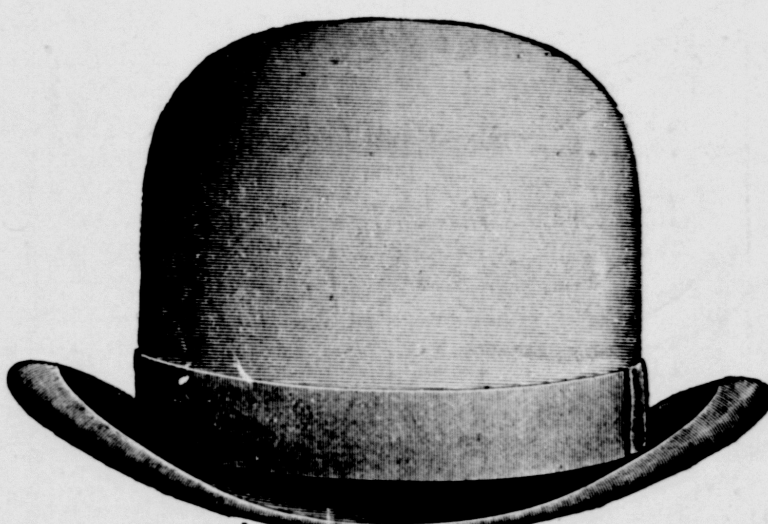

JOHN B. STETSON CO.

Miller,

SPRING, 1896.

"Have a good hat; the secret of your looks
Lives with the beaver in Canadian brooks;
Virtue may flourish in an old cravat,
But man and Nature scorn the shocking hat;
Does beauty slight you from her gay abodes?
Like bright Apollo you must take to Rhoades,
Mount the new castor,—ice itself will melt;
Boots, gloves may fail; the hat is always felt."

—OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES.

JOHN B. STETSON CO.

Stetson Special,

The Miller Hat

made by John B. Stetson & Co., more than fills the picture outlined by Doctor Holmes, as it is not only a good hat, but the best hat made.

The Fall Blocks

of 1895 of both the Miller and the John B. Stetson & Co.'s were undeniably the most tasty hats on the market and did more to set the Hat world agog than all others combined.

The Spring Blocks

for 1896 are equally as striking and are sure to be the greatest leaders on the market for the coming season.

WE ARE ALREADY SHOWING both of these celebrated hats.

IT IS NOT TOO EARLY TO BUY your hat for spring. We are able to furnish you with any of the new things.

T. J. ZEIGLER.
